

Lubbock Music NOW 2017

a project of Civic Lubbock, Inc.

Lubbock Music NOW: It's the frame for a picture of life in the Hub City. It's the artists grinding it out night after night providing a soundtrack for our evenings out. It's the songs being written now that may endure for years to come.

The Project: Compile an album every year made up entirely of locally-produced music. Submitted tracks will be narrowed down and final selections made by current and former members of the Texas branch of The Recording Academy (Texas Grammy Board).

The Purpose: To honor and recognize musicians living in the Lubbock area "working the circuit," and to give visitors a picture of what the local scene is producing. It's a time capsule of music.

How to Get Involved:

Just fill out the application available at www.civiclubbock.com and make sure you meet all the requirements. You'll submit one song in digital format (.wav file) to a designated online account. No hard copies.

What Artists Get:

-Winning entries will receive a $200 prize and ten free copies of the album
(All proceeds from sales of the album will be retained by Civic Lubbock, Inc. and utilized for producing future editions of Lubbock Music NOW)

-Inclusion in an elite group of local artists chosen by past and present members of the Texas branch of The Recording Academy (Texas Grammy Board)

-Publicity: Your music gets out to the public in a unique way and your web site/social media account info will be included in the CD packaging
